#3

TypingGuru App

Easy

GET IT ON Google Play

Technology has become an inseparable part of human life in the twenty first century people cannot imagine a single day without using some form of technology from the moment we wake up to the sound of an alarm on our phone till the time we go to bed after checking the last notification our daily routine is surrounded by digital devices computers laptops tablets smartphones smart watches and even home appliances like washing machines and refrigerators are all designed with advanced systems that save time and effort the internet has connected the world like never before it allows instant communication through emails messages and video calls across thousands of kilometers within seconds online education and virtual classrooms have given students the opportunity to learn from global teachers without leaving their homes businesses also use technology for data storage financial transactions and marketing campaigns according to a recent report more than 65 percent of small companies use social media platforms for business growth this shows how digital tools are no longer optional but essential however technology also comes with challenges people are becoming addicted to screens spending more than 6 to 8 hours daily on devices which affects eyesight sleep cycle and mental health children who play games online for many hours face problems in studies and social interaction cyber security is another major issue with millions of users storing sensitive data online the risk of hacking and data theft is very high therefore every user must follow safety steps like using strong passwords updating antivirus software and avoiding suspicious links despite these risks the advantages of technology are far greater medical science is using machines for early detection of diseases robots are assisting in complex surgeries and artificial intelligence is helping doctors to analyze patient records faster transportation has also improved with electric vehicles high speed trains and navigation apps which guide people accurately technology has also supported environmental protection for example solar panels wind turbines and water recycling systems are innovations that reduce pollution and save natural resources the future will bring even more advanced tools such as self driving cars smart cities and virtual reality education but it is our responsibility to use these resources wisely in a balanced way